

UNITRUST WIN BEST CUSTOMER CARE AWARD 2009

Security services specialists UniTrust Protection Services (UK) Ltd, won the coveted Best Customer Care Award at the Park Royal Partnership Business Awards Ceremony. The award was presented at a spectacular evening and fund raising event for the charity 'Children with Special Needs' at London's most fashionable and iconic venue, Wembley Stadium.

To win this particular award is a great accolade to the efforts of the UniTrust management team and staff. This award was open to all of the businesses within the Park Royal area which includes many high profile companies as well as progressive SME's. Bearing in mind Park Royal is Europe's largest industrial estate, encompassing 2,000 businesses employing over 45,000 employees it was a great achievement. UniTrust won the award as a direct result of their support from their customers new and old who all agree that the service they receive is unrivalled.

Paul Griffin, UniTrust's Managing Director said, "It does show that hard work, dedication and a passion about customer care and support is rewarded. This award I feel reflects our company philosophy where we always put our customers first, listen to them and always exceed their high expectations."

Director of Operations, Ian Yexley added, "This award is on the back of the recent Silver Fox Special Commendation for outstanding services in the development of independent on-site audits. This demonstrates that we have a genuine commitment to our staff and customers."

The award was proudly received by Shiv Gill, one of UniTrust's Senior Contract Managers who has been with the company for 9 years; he was applauded by the Directors and numerous well wishers.

As part of the evening's entertainment, the cast of Chicago that dazzled the guests with such classics as ' All that Jazz' and ' When you are good to mama'.

Left to right, Alan Gomm, Development Director, Paul Griffin, Managing Director, Ian Yexley, Operations Director, Shiv Gill, Contract Manager.

